Fall Meetings Start!

Yep, we've started up again for the fall. The first meeting was held on September 22 and as I write this, the second on September 29. We'll be meeting in the same place at the same time as last spring. Check the box below for the details.

The meeting format for now is open, so bring your tying staff and start to replace all those flies lost to trees and fish during the summer. You can also bring along those photos you took of all the whoppers you caught to prove how good your summer was.

For me, it was a spotty summer, not enough fishing and only a few cutthroats brought to hand. I spent lots of time with Kosovo refugees, but that's another story. I've yet to receive a report on the Ram River trip, so will someone let me know what happened and I'll pass on the gory details.

I just returned from the Greyling Gala where those of us that went enjoyed a nice outing. See page two for the trip report. I'm not sure who or how many are going to the Big Brown Bonanza seeing as how it is so late in the year. Let Dennis know if you're planning to go so the various folks can be put in touch with each other.

Shelly Robertson has resigned as Treasurer in order to keep on top of her new business venture. Watch for her new store "The Big Fresh" opening up October 4 on Jasper Ave. at about 121 Street. That means we need a volunteer to mind the books, so anybody out there with aspirations to the executive, please call Dennis.

As for the new program... In keeping with last year's efforts, we'll try to mix tying with other fly fishing topics to keep a broad perspective. But to be successful, we need your input as members. We need to know what you want to have happen at the meetings and just as importantly, what you think you can contribute. Remember, you don't need to be an expert to share your experiences. We're all there to learn from each other, so don't be shy.

I'm looking forward to seeing all of you at a meeting in the next few weeks. Till then....
