December

Our next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday November 22 at 7:30 p.m. Roman Scharabun and Ian Russell will be demonstrating some patterns and Tak Shimizu will be working with the beginners. Come on out and do some tying or just watch and learn. Please note that there will be no tying on the 29th of November and the 27th of December as we don't have the school.

Evelyn & Frank Kwak have graciously offered to host our first annual Christmas get together at their home in St.Albert. Saturday December 16 at 7:00p.m., we will be having a Ham dinner and everyone is encouraged to attend. Cost is $15.00 per couple ($7.50 single) and your welcome to bring wine (no hard liquor please). Please confirm your attendance with payment on or before December 6th. You can pay Evelyn at the Nov.22 or Dec.6 meetings or call her or Frank at 459-8008. We must have a minimum of 12 people to proceed with this.

Trout Unlimited would like to inform the members of The Northern Lights Fly Tyers that they are sponsoring two days of seminars with well known angler/author Skip Morris on February 3 & 4 1996. Saturday Feb.3 will be a flytying workshop limited to 20 people and Sunday Feb.4 will be a general flyfishing workshop covering various topics. A more detailed information sheet is attached. Trout Unlimited would like to invite members of the N.L.F.T. to attend at members price, which is a savings of $5.00 per day.

Skip Morris

In Edmonton February 3 & 4, 1996

Skip Morris is well-known as a fly tyer, rod-builder and designer, writer and fly fisher. His books include the following; Fly Tying Made Clear & Simple, The Art of Tying the Nymph, The Art of Tying the Dry Fly and The Custom Graphite Fly Rod. His video, Fly Tying Made Clear and Simple, was released in late 1993.

Skip has written for most of the major fly-fishing magazines, and for three years tied all the cover flies for Flyfishing Magazine. He has a regular column in the new magazine Steelhead Flyfishing Journal.

Skip has conducted clinics and talks for flyshops, fly clubs and sportmen's shows throughout the world. He is a master flytyer and his flies are among those in the collection of the Cushner Fly Museum.

Skip is the winner of FFF Flytying Competition in 1989, 1990, 1991, and has also won the Eagle Claw Fly Tying Contest and many other awards. His flytying articles have appeared in Salmon Trout Steelheader, Fly Fishing, Fly Fishing Quarterly and Fly Fisherman magazines.

Skip received a B.A. in English from Central Washington University with a minor in Biology. He has great experience in lecturing and his shows are entertaining as well as technical. Skip was previously a part-time instructor at Mt. Hood Community College and Central Washington University.

Residing in Portland, Oregon, Skip's reputation is fast making him one of the top speakers on the flyfishing circuit.

Cost will be $40.00 member/ $45.00 non-member for the Saturdays flytying & $35.00 member/ $40.00 non-member for the general flyfishing session on Sunday. A combination ticket for both days will be available for $70.00 member/ $80.00 non-member.

A registration form with location, times and program details will available in at the next meeting, in the next newsletter or at any Fishin' Hole location or at Denny's Flytying Specialties. Or call Bill Robertson @ 427-2087(B)/476-4235 for more information or to register.
